

House Resolution No.

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives always welcome the opportunity to acknowledge special events experienced by Show-Me State residents who have been blessed by exceptionally long and productive lives; and

Whereas, born on Christmas Day, December 25, 1903, into the family of James and Ollie (Northcutt) Madden, Beulah Sarah Youngman will celebrate her One Hundred First Birthday on December 25, 2004; and

Whereas, after an enjoyable childhood filled with all types of educational and rewarding activities, the former Beulah Madden established a family of her own through her joyful marriage to Herbert Youngman who loved and cherished her with all of his heart; and

Whereas, the marital union of Beulah and Herbert Youngman has been blessed with two wonderful children, Viola Starmer and Dr. Dwight L. Youngman of Bethany, Missouri; three grandchildren; and six great-grandchildren; and

Whereas, a vibrant part of the twenty-first century, Beulah Youngman enjoys a life which encompassed most of the twentieth century with its first flights by heavier-than-air craft, worldwide turmoil associated with World War I and World War II, rise of the automobile as America's preferred mode of travel, demise of the Soviet Union as the Cold War drew to a close, and shift from a primarily agricultural economy to one dependent upon industry and then upon the service and information sectors; and

Whereas, a former farm wife, Beulah Madden now engages in the avocational pursuits of reading, watching television, and listening to music; and

Whereas, it is fitting and proper that the Missouri House of Representatives pauses to commemorate momentous events in the lives of such stellar citizens as Beulah Youngman:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the joyous arrival of the One Hundred First Birthday of Beulah Youngman and to convey to her this legislative body's heartiest congratulations upon attaining such a rare milestone in life and our best wishes for many more celebratory events in the future; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of Beulah Sarah Youngman of Bethany, Missouri.
